Details of the Massacre of Foreigners in Peking—China Gives Out the Real Truth Piece-Meal—Dispatches That Confirm News of Their Slaughter—Did Not Die, However, Until One Desperate Sortie—Try to Cut Their Way Through Their Besiegers—They Kill Hundreds of Boxers in the Attempt—Details of the Horrible Story May Never Be Known—Not One Thought to Have Been Spared.

Washington, July 16.—[Special Telegram.]—The State department received information this morning which leads it to believe that Minister Conger and the American legation has not been molested.

Mr. Conger has been on a very friendly footing with Prince Tuan and it is hoped that he and his family and the American officials have all been saved.

Washington, July 16.—[Special Cablegram.]—Admiral Remy cables from Chefoo, July 18, as follows:

"It is reported that the allied forces attacked the native city on the morning of July 13. The Russians were on the right with the United States Ninth Infantry and the marines on the left.

"The losses to the allied forces were large, the Russians losing over one hundred, including an artillery colonel; the Americans over thirty; the British over forty; and the Japanese fifty-eight, including Col. French and twenty-five men.

"Col. Liscum of the Ninth Infantry was killed, also Captain Davis of the Marine corps. Captain Lemley and Lieutenants Butler and Leonard were wounded.

"A severe attack on the native city was repulsed with great losses. Returns are yet incomplete and details can not yet be confirmed."

American Loss Over 250

Washington, July 16.—[Special Telegram.]—Remy's dispatch, telling of the repulse of the attack of the allied forces upon the native city of Tien Tsing, with losses amounting to over two hundred and fifty, including Colonel Liscum, commander of the Ninth, was received with consternation at the war department.

A hurried consultation was immediately held by the secretaries of war, navy and state. It is certain Remy's dispatch is based upon authentic sources of information.

The Ninth regiment sailed from Manila June 18, arrived at Taku July 7, and arrived at Tien Tsing with a battalion of marines on the morning of July 12. Twenty-four hours later it was engaged in a deadly battle.

It is reported that the loss is 25 per cent heavier than at the battle of Santiago.

More Troops From England
London, July 16.—[Special Cablegram.]—It is stated that the English contingent for China will be raised to nearly fifty thousand troops. It is hoped here that the United States will also send that quota.

Battle on June 11 and 13
An official dispatch from Tien Tsing dated July 11 says the enemy that morning determinedly attacked the garrison at the railway station, which is composed of a hundred each of British, French and Japanese troops. The Chinese were repulsed after four hours' fighting, losing five hundred killed; the British three killed and eight wounded, and the French and Japanese losses were considerably heavier.

A dispatch dated July 13 describes tremendous fighting in progress that day. Twenty thousand Chinese attacked the wall of the city. The enemy has placed guns within eight hundred yards of the British and French settlements and is continuing a galling fire.

Facts Known at Washington
Washington, July 16.—[Special Telegram.]—The department of state has information of horrible atrocities in Peking against foreigners, including all Americans, but the department is suppressing the facts.

The women and little girls have been tortured to death and their bodies torn to fragments. The men have been tortured into lingering deaths.

Tortured by the Chinese
All of the legations have been destroyed. The American minister, his wife, his daughters, visiting friends and all Americans in Peking have suffered vile outrages and deaths that oriental savagery could devise and inflict.

The Chinese have torn the American flag to shreds and smeared the rage with blood from the wounds of the dying Americans.

Danger to Allies at Tien Tsing
These facts are known to the department of state, but they are communicated in confidence only to a few who are officially entitled to know of the actual conditions.

The state department also knows that not less than 50,000 of the imperial soldiers aided the "boxers" and that they carried the imperial Chinese flag while they engaged in the savage torture and butchery.

The allied forces at Tien Tsing are now being surrounded and there is grave fear for their extermination.

Sortie of Legation Guards.

London, July 16.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Express on the alleged authority of couriers who brought the story, gives a very sensational account of the massacre at Peking. He says: "Maddened with hunger, after having been without food for many days, the members of the legation and the guards made a sortie on the night of June 30, and killed 200 Chinese in an unexpected attack.

To Kill Every Foreigner.

Gen. Tung Fuh Siang, enraged over the loss of so many men, brought up heavy guns and Prince Tuan gave the order that every foreigner must be destroyed. His words were 'Destroy every foreign vestige and make China a sealed book to all Western powers.'

"Prince Tuan had previously discovered that Prince Ching was supplying the foreigners with ammunition. He therefore ordered Gen. Tung Fuh Siang to fire on Prince Ching's troops and it is reported that Ching was killed or seriously wounded.

Final Attempt of the Legations.

"In the final attempt to cut their way through, the legation forces formed a square, with the women and children in the center. When the boxers realized that they were being attacked they became like wild beasts and shot each other with revolvers.

"Heavy guns bombarded all night until the buildings were demolished and

It is possible that a complete list of the foreigners killed in the general massacre at Peking can never be known, for it is feared a number of tourists and others must be included in the lists of those known to have been killed. The following is a list of those known to have been killed or believed to have been in the Chinese capital and to have fallen victims to the mob.

in flames. Many foreigners were roasted in the ruins.

Carried Heads Through Streets

"The boxers rushed upon them and hacked and jabbed both dead and wounded, cutting off their heads and carrying these through the streets on their rifles, shouting fiercely. They then attacked the native Christian quarters, massacred all who refused to join them, outraged the women and brained the children. Hundreds of mission buildings were burned."

All China Aflame

The correspondent adds: "All China is now aflame with revolt against foreigners. Only in the extreme West is there quiet. Every port, even Shanghai, is menaced. In the provinces of Hupe and Hunan thousands of native Christians have been mutilated and tortured, the women being first outraged and then massacred."

To Protect Chinese in America.

Washington, July 16.—The government has taken note of the efforts made in some quarters to stir up an agitation against the peaceable Chinese in the United States. It feels it is imperative necessary to use the entire resources of the government to suppress any movement that would jeopardize their safety.

And it may be stated that there will be no halting in the use of the federal troops for such purposes if they are called for by the state officials.

Troops Sail for China.

Manila, July 16.—Two battalions of the Fourteenth Infantry and Daggett's battery of the Fifth Artillery left for China today by the transport Indiana, Flintshire and Wyfield.

Great War Is on in China

Washington, July 16.—A great war opened in China, with the Japanese in the front line and with the heaviest reserves immediately available. Three American battalions and about 13,000 Japanese troops have reached Tien Tsing since these two battles were fought, so that the allied forces now exceed 25,000 men, with contingents slowly dribbling into Taku.

War has not been formally declared, but it is in progress, with every indication that it will continue indefinitely until the government now in power is overthrown and the empire broken up into a series of European and Japanese provinces and protectorates.

The retreat of the allied forces from Tien Tsing would be followed by outbreaks against the foreigners in all the provinces.

OBLIGED TO KILL THE WOUNDED

Seymour Has Them Shot to Escape Torture From Chinese.

London, July 16.—It is reported from Shanghai that the most horrible feature of the fighting at Tien Tsing was that Admiral Seymour was obliged to kill his wounded in order to prevent them from falling into the hands of the Chinese. Bodies of some of the men who had been captured by the Boxers while still alive show that they have been subjected to the most horrible tortures.

Admiral Seymour in retreat found that he was unable absolutely to care for his wounded. He gave a hearing to all who had any suggestions to make, but it was impossible for the force to get away and carry the wounded men with them.

Seymour, it is reported, went to the men and with streaming eyes, asked them whether they would prefer to be shot by their own commander or left to the tender mercies of the Chinese.

He informed them that it would be impossible for him to do anything for them and the wounded at once pleaded for death at the hands of their own men.

A firing squad was made up and while the little allied force under Seymour held off the Chinese that swarmed around, a few volleys relieved the army of its burden of wounded and cheated the fanatics of their prospective victims.

TO PUT GEN. MILES IN COMMAND

Special Session of Congress Likely Over the Chinese Trouble.

Washington, July 16.—There are circumstantial reports abroad that this government, with the sanction of congress—which, it is believed, must now be called in extra session—will dispatch 50,000 troops to China and that Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles will go in command of the expedition. Gen. Miles called on Chinese Minister Wu and had a long conference on the military situation in China. Many war maps were consulted, and it is said that the general is fully convinced that an American army could march to Peking as an independent command. The war department officials and the state department heads are thoroughly displeased by the discord now apparent among the allied forces in Tien Tsing, and, moreover, they are determined that Minister Conger shall be rescued if alive and avenged if dead. At present the force already ordered to China of 10,000 men is too small for a lieutenant general's command, but Gen. Miles is attending busily to the details of this force, which will be under Gen. Chaffee. It is freely admitted in official circles that the confirmation of Mr. Conger's death, the spread of the revolt and the confirmation of the complicity of the Chinese government really will mean war.

Governor Favors the "Boxers."

Secretary Hay received an undated dispatch from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, stating that the governor of Honan-Shansi has issued a proclamation favorable in its terms to the "Boxers." The news only goes to confirm the general belief that the situation in China steadily is growing worse instead of better.

Bishop Fantuzzi Killed.

Rome, July 16.—The Italian consul at Shanghai cables that the Italian mission in Hy Nan has been destroyed and Bishop Fantuzzi and two missionaries killed. He also reports that the Italian missions in Ho Nan and Hupe have been assaulted.

Ask Prayers for the Imperiled.

Shanghai, July 16.—The American missionaries ask The Associated Press to publish the following: "To the Christian people of the United States: The missionaries in China ask a special prayer from every pulpit for the guidance of the government and the speedy succor of Americans and native converts in extreme peril."

DE GERS BOILED ALIVE.

Fiendish Torture of French Ambassador and Wife.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—An official dispatch to the Russian foreign office confirms the report that M. de Giers, the Russian minister, was boiled alive in Peking after suffering the most cruel tortures. He and his family were dragged through the streets by Boxers and tortured with sticks. His body was fed to the dogs. Mme. de Giers was subjected to the most revolting tortures before death ended her sufferings. A declaration of war by the czar is expected. The czar is grief-stricken over the news of the slaughter in the Chinese capital. As he read the story of the fiendish murder of De Giers it is said the czar wept. In the midst of the outrages M. de Giers is said, encouraged by his wife, to have boldly proclaimed his faith in Christianity. The legation officials and the envoy's household fought desperately to the last, but their efforts were of no avail. They died, says the dispatch, as did the martyred followers of Christ under the heinous tortures of Nero. The Russo-Korean relations are of the best. The Korean minister and his cabinet are said to be favorably impressed with Russia's activity in China, and with her lenient attitude toward Japan.

MAX BE SENT HOME.

Chinese Minister at Washington Uses Language Rejected by Officials.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—Chinese Minister Wu Ting Fang, by indirect charges the nations of the world with sacrificing their ministers at Peking to create a crisis upon which to work the dismemberment of the Chinese empire.

"To an evil mind the failure of the allied forces to relieve the foreign ministers must look as though the nations do not wish to rescue them," says Mr. Wu. "The death of the foreigners in Peking means a grave crisis for China. An evil mind would think that the powers want this crisis even at such a cost. It is horrible to think of the legations cannot hold out forever. Why have the allied forces not march-

NOTIFY WOOLLEY IN CHICAGO

Prohibitionist Nominee for the Presidency to be Officially Informed

Chicago, July 16.—Preparations are in progress to render the nomination of J. G. Woolley as the official nominee for the presidency of the prohibition party an affair of more than ordinary interest. The ceremony will be held in Central Music hall on July 20 and a large number of the more prominent men in the temperance cause have already signified their intention to be present at the event. A large attendance is expected not only from all parts of the state, but also from all over the country, and it is the avowed intention of the prohibitionists to make this meeting the largest that has ever been held by them for a similar purpose.

EARTHQUAKES DO MUCH HARM

Upheavals to the Caucasus Mountains Kill Six Persons.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—Severe earthquakes in the Kars and Kagyran districts of the Caucasus mountains resulted in the destruction of five villages, several churches and many houses. Six persons were killed and nine injured. Additional shocks are still being reported.

REPUBLICANS BIG RALLY IN ST. PAUL

National League Convention Begins There Tomorrow—Gov. Roosevelt Will Deliver an Address.

St. Paul, Minn., July 16.—Arrangements are completed for the republican national league convention to be held in St. Paul three days, beginning tomorrow. National Secretary D. H. Stine has been here for some time working with the local committee, and said today that he had already received notice of the coming of 1,500 delegates and alternates, though he believes the number will exceed 2,000 league delegates.

Since it was decided that Governor Roosevelt would be here on Tuesday the demand has been great for special train service from surrounding towns. The railroad estimate that they will bring 100,000 visitors here on that day to see and hear the vice presidential nominee. So large a crowd is expected that preparations are being made to remove windows and side panels of the auditorium so that the overflow may at least get a glimpse of the famous rough rider.

It is a foregone conclusion that Colonel Isaac M. Hamilton of Illinois, will be elected president of the national league to succeed Colonel Stone of California, and that D. H. Stine of Kentucky, will be re-elected secretary, though he has no opposition to him.

Among the former presidents of the league who will be here, are: John M. Thurston of Nebraska; W. W. Tracey of Illinois; General E. A. McAlpin of New York; and D. D. Woodmansee of Ohio.

The program for the first day's session will be brief, owing to the presence in the city that day of Governor Roosevelt. After the usual opening exercises, United States Senator Knute Nelson, on behalf of the state, will welcome the league. Addresses of welcome will also be made on behalf of the state league and the city of St. Paul.

One of the features of the convention will be the nightly parade of visiting clubs, now estimated at an aggregate attendance of 10,000. The parade on Tuesday evening prior to the address of Governor Roosevelt will be made, if possible, the most notable event in the way of marching clubs, that the west has ever witnessed.

M'KINLEY MAY CALL AN EXTRA SESSION

More Men and Money Needed To Meet the Fresh Emergencies Now Arising in China.

ARIZONA DROUGHT BROKEN

Tucson, Ariz., July 19.—Rain has fallen in this valley and reports from outside districts indicate rainfall in every direction. ## MISSOURIAN DEALS IN TWINS

Poplar Bluff, Mo., July 16.—Richard Perry, a Clarkville farmer is rejoicing in the usual luck with which Dame fortune is favoring him. About three months ago a pair of bouncing twin boys came to gladden his household. Since then a pair of twin mules and fifteen pairs of twin lambs have materially increased his stock. Last week three little pigs joined his flock which have sixteen distinct feet, two having five each and one having six.

FILIPINOS ARE ACTIVE AGAIN

Loud Call From Interior Points to MacArthur for More Soldiers.

SHORTAGE OF TROOPS

Task of Subduing the Rebels Proves to Be Greater Than Was Expected.

INSURGENTS LED BY PRIESTS

Manila, July 16.—"More soldiers" is the demand which is coming to General MacArthur from every department of the islands. Recent events have worked to vindicate General Lawton's judgment that 100,000 troops would be needed to establish American sovereignty over the Philippines.

Until they attempted to hold provinces of 200,000 or 300,000 hostile people with a regiment or two the American commanders hardly realized the size of the Philippine Islands.

The present force is not large enough to garrison more than half the important towns, and in some of the most important islands, among them Cebu, Panay, Samar, Leyte, and the great Mohammedan Empire of Mindanao, only the commercial ports are occupied.

Expect Fighting With Moros.

The Moros are a cloud on the horizon. The officers best acquainted with conditions at Mindanao and the Sulu islands consider that serious fighting there is inevitable. If it comes the two regiments which are scattered in small garrisons, some of them hundreds of miles apart along the coast of Mindanao, an island nearly as large as Luzon, may have serious work.

The Moros are fighters by nature, do not fear death, have many guns, though of antiquated makes, but do the best execution by lying in the thick jungles and cutting down soldiers who pass through with their knives and spears.

Rebels Have Reorganized.

General Young, who is holding seven of the most mountainous provinces of Luzon with four regiments, expects severe work during the rainy season. For some two months after his bewildering invasion of the north in December the insurgents were paralyzed. With a few more troops to keep an eye on the villages and prevent reconcentration the paralysis, the general believes, could have been made permanent. Finding ample opportunities to reorganize, the insurgents have availed themselves thereof.

Many of the United States troops have worn themselves and horses down to the limit of endurance in marching about the mountain trails striking the Filipinos wherever they could get track of an organized band. Hundreds of the natives have been slain, but much of the work has been like brushing away mosquitoes.

Natives Led by a Priest.

The church has become a troublesome factor in Young's territory. Aglipay, the priest who has proclaimed himself as archbishop of the Philippines, is in the field as a general. His forces attacked Captain Dodd of the Third Cavalry at Batoc, when more than 200 Filipinos were slain.

General Young has evidence that the priests of the region have been sending church contributions to Aglipay. Two prominent priests are in jail charged with aiding the insurrection, and will be tried by a military commission.

TERRY M'GOVERN AND FRANK ERNE FIGHT

The Two Champions Will Meet for a Finish Battle in the City of New York Tonight.

New York, July 16.—When Frank Erne, the greatest of light weights, and Terry McGovern, champion feather weight, meet to-night at Madison Square Garden two different styles of fighting will be seen, and the contest will about settle the old question of boxer versus fighter.

Erne is one of the cleverest fighters ever seen in the ring, has speed to burn and is full of all the tricks of the trade, while the Brooklyn boy is a born fighter and believes in getting after his man and, regardless of a few punches, keeping after him until he has, by hard body blows, reduced him to the proper condition for a knockout.

According to experts the conditions of the fight are in McGovern's favor, as Erne, besides having to fight several pounds below the light weight limit, has undertaken to administer to McGovern his first knockout or lose the decision.

EXPECT FINE SPORT ON LAKE AND FIELD

WISCONSIN HUNTERS SAY GAME IS PLENTIFUL.

Blue Bill Ducks Reported to Have Reached Their Young at Lake Koshkonong for the First Time in Many Years—Season an Ideal One—A Shooter's Ideas.

Wisconsin sportsmen claim that game will be quite plentiful this fall. The season has been unusually propitious for hatching and the strict enforcement of that section of the law relating to the spring shooting of aquatic fowl is said to be responsible for the large numbers that are expected to be in evidence this fall.

The young birds are said to be already taking to the wing, although according to the law shooting is not permitted until Sept. 1, when there will be a general rush to marshes and upland. A sportsman said today to a reporter that this year, the first time in many a season blue bill have hatched at Lake Koshkonong. He attributed this directly to the enforcement of that section prohibiting spring shooting. This is an extremely unusual occurrence, but owing to the fact that the birds were not disturbed last spring the blue bills instead of proceeding to their northern homes in British Columbia, halted in this section in their flight and reared their young here. Similar reports have been received from other parts of the state, and sportsmen believe that the shooting this fall will be exceedingly good.

The birds this spring have not been disturbed in their nesting. The season was an ideal one for the rearing of their young. There was no high water to drown out the nests after they were once built, and the season in every way was an excellent one, as the birds were not disturbed. The wood duck is invariably the first to rear its young. They are already on the wing. Mallard and teal are said to be doing well, and it is reported that some of the variety are out. In anticipation of unlawful poaching, game wardens have already been sent to the marshes which are owned by clubs and private parties, to watch the game, and stop any infraction of the law which may occur.

Smith and wife were safe in China, their son, Henry Smith, a junior of Beloit college, who resides in the Line City, has heard nothing of his parents since he received letters from them in May. They were then in Peking and spoke of their coming danger. Dr. Henry Porter, a friend of Arthur Smith, has communicated with his friends. Arthur Smith, graduated from Beloit college in 1897. His wife was Miss Dickinson of Beloit.

GOLFER VARDON BROKE THE RECORD

Janesville golfers were much interested in the outcome of the golf play at Lake Geneva by Harry Vardon the English professional. Friday he broke the record of the club course by three strokes by playing the first nine holes in 36. Saturday morning his playing was not up to the standard of his work on Friday. Saturday afternoon Vardon played Walter Egan the club's champion, and Tolleson the club's professional. He covered the first nine holes in 38 and the second in 39. The score of the best ball against him was first nine in 40 and the second 9 in 36, leaving Vardon one down. Vardon's driving was excellent, but he lost on putting. A gallery of about three hundred followed the players around the course and many brilliant plays evoked great applause.

Otis Is Without a Command.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—High military officers place no credence in the published report that the department of the Gulf is to be re-established to give Maj.-Gen. Otis a command commensurate with his rank, though Gen. Miles has recommended its re-establishment. Gen. Otis is now on leave of absence, and unless present plans miscarry he will not resume active duty until the command of the department of the lakes at Chicago becomes vacant in September next by the statutory requirement of Brig.-Gen. Wheeler on account of age.

Death on Board a Steamer.

St. Joseph, Mich., July 16.—Dr. A. Winston of Cincinnati, O., aged 26, died suddenly on board the steamer City of Milwaukee. Dr. Barton, another passenger, said death was due to heart disease, caused probably by extreme heat and excitement of boarding the steamer in a hurry. Dr. A. Winston, with forty members of the Bartlett Commercial College of Cincinnati was having an annual outing on Lake Michigan. The remains were sent to Cincinnati.

ARE CHARGES MADE AGAINST MAJ. RAY?

DISPATCH FROM CAPE NOME SO STATES.

General Randall May Have a Scandal to Probe—War Department Officials Deny the Story, and Say There Is No Trouble in Janesville Man's Command.

General George M. Randall may have a scandal to probe, and the officer under charge is a well known Wisconsin man. General Randall is now in command of the Department of Alaska, and a dispatch from Cape Nome says: "Charges have been filed against Maj. Patrick Henry Ray, who, previous to the coming of Brig. Gen. Randall, commanded the troops in Alaska, by Capt. W. K. Wright of Co. L., Seventh United States Infantry, who in turn has been the subject of a counter-complaint by the accused major. The charges against Ray contain over twenty specifications, involving his integrity and conduct as an officer. Wright is charged with disobedience of orders. Gen. Randall is expected to hold a court of inquiry at Fort Egbert, where Ray is now stationed."

The story is denied at Washington, however. Adjt.-Gen. Corbin stated positively to the correspondent of the Evening Wisconsin that so far as he knew, no charges whatever have been filed at the war department against Maj. Ray. Gen. Corbin stated that had any charges been filed at the war department against Maj. Ray, he would have had full knowledge of it. In view of the fact that no such information has reached the department, Gen. Corbin added that he did not believe that the rumors circulated against Maj. Ray were true. This is all he would say. Secretary Root also denied that he had any information in regard to the alleged charges. All other war department officials made similar answers.

Smart Set for July

If "The Smart Set," for July does not interest summer readers they may as well give over the task of finding anything that will. Its pages are full of the atmosphere of mountains and seas, and are written with all the art and fascination known to the cleverest of living writers. The novelette of the number, "When Reginald Was Caroline," by Edward S. Zile, is one of the few really humorous long stories ever written in this country. Mr. Van Zile's story is so full of startling situations, which are withal so comic, that it must prove vastly entertaining to the whole reading world. Julien Gordon (Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger) contributes to the number a remarkable social study entitled, "The Voice Within." Gertrude Atherton writes in her usual powerful style a thrilling story entitled "The Striding Place." Stephen Liske contributes his reminiscences of "The First Ocean Yacht Race," in which race he accompanied James Gordon Bennett on the Henrietta across the Atlantic; Clinton Ross and Will N. Harben have stories entitled respectively "The White Doe" and "Angels Unaware;" other stories are by Vance Thompson, Prince Vladimir Viansky, Howard M. Hoke and W. J. Thorold, and there is a story in the original French by Leon de Tinsau. The poems are by Edgar Fawcett, Clinton Scollard, Arthur Stringer, Carolyn Wells, Frank Roe Batchelder, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, and many others.

CROWD WILL MEET TEDDY ROOSEVELT

Republican Vice Presidential Nominee Will Arrive at Milwaukee at 8:40 O'clock Tonight.

Milwaukee, July 16.—Indications are that there will be a large crowd at the Union station this evening for the purpose of meeting and greeting Gov. Roosevelt, the republican nominee for vice president of the United States. Several enthusiastic admirers of the Rough Rider candidate have signified their intention of going down to Western Union junction for the purpose of accompanying Gov. Roosevelt from that point.

While there is no organized effort being made to greet Gov. Roosevelt on his arrival, a large number of republicans as well as citizens regardless of political affairs will be at the station for that purpose. A regular official call has been issued to the members of the republican county committee to be on hand, and other organizations will be there in disorganized condition. It will be a spontaneous reception, and it is expected that Gov. Roosevelt will deliver a short address. The train usually remains about ten minutes, but it is understood that on this occasion the time will be extended at least five minutes.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to postoffice. Kodak agents.

Trade Names in the Peerage.

With Sir Richard Webster still another surname derived from a trade—that of weaver—finds its way into the peerage. The names of this class already in the peerage are Tylour (Headfort), Turnour (Winterton), Parker (Macclesfield and Morley), Smith (Hambleden and Strathcona), Napier (Napier of Ettrick and Napier of Magdala), Lister (Lister and Masham), and Kitchener (Kitchener of Khartoum). These names are not of the same class as Stewart, Butler, Falconer and Forrester, which, in the case of the titled families who own them, are derived from royal offices, and are, therefore, aristocratic in origin.—London Chronicle.

Where the Duke Was.

Among the many stories told lately in connection with the late duke of Argyll the following seems to have escaped repetition. A distinguished officer of the army called on the duke at Inverary castle, and was told by the servant that he was not at home. "Where is he?" asked the officer. "He's awa', awa'," was Donald's hesitating reply; "awa' washing himself." The duke was at a seaside watering place.—London Globe.

CAPTURED FOR A SPY.

A Young American Held as a Prisoner by the Boers.

EXPERIENCE OF STEPHEN B. MUSITS

His Captors Refused to Recognize an American Passport—Court Martialled and Found Not Guilty—Finally Escaped to Kimberley and Has a Claim For Damages.

An interesting story of the experiences of a young American in the South African war, arrested and court martialled as a spy by the Boers, is brought out by a claim for damages which is soon to be filed in the state department by Senator Proctor, writes the Washington correspondent of the New York Sun. The young man who makes the claim is Stephen B. Musits, son of a physician of New York. He went to South Africa with a Mr. Remington of New York three years ago to try his luck in the Kimberley mines and until the outbreak of the war had a very successful career for a young man of 18. In a communication which young Musits sent to Senator Proctor through his parents, asking for the assistance of the United States government in recovering his property lost during the war, he refers to many thrilling experiences and hairbreadth escapes. His communication is in the form of a diary covering his experiences from the time of the outbreak of the war to the relief of besieged Kimberley.

When the war first commenced, Musits was residing at Walden's plant. Learning that the Boers were arranging for a march on Barkly, young Musits decided to slip through the Boer lines and get to Kimberley. "Everything went well," he writes, "until I was within six or seven miles of Kimberley, when I saw a party of Boers a mile away. Being so near to Kimberley and knowing my horse was easily able to run away from them, I thought I would risk it, so, putting spurs to the animal, I started. I had gone only about a thousand yards when I ran into a party of Dutch. They surrounded me and took me prisoner. Being taken before their commander, I showed him my passport, but as he could not read English or did not want to, I cannot say which, he kept me prisoner. They took my horse, money, etc., and then made me undress myself stark naked while they searched my clothes. They even took off the shoes of the horse and looked for dispatches. I was then allowed to dress and taken to a tent, where I was guarded day and night.

"The first night I felt rather homesick. I could see Kimberley, its lights, etc., and every now and then the searchlights would shine upon the camp. For four days I was kept at this camp, with nothing to eat except coffee, without sugar or milk, and some fat cakes. Water was very scarce, and I was only allowed to wash once in that time. I was then sent into the Free State under an escort. Nothing was given back to me except my saddle and bridle, which were put upon one of their horses.

"Arriving at the Free State, I was handed over to the commander. He was a very good sort of a man, and as I had known him while digging in the Transvaal he treated me with the greatest of kindness, giving me my freedom on condition that I would not run away. After four days there I was taken to another camp about 20 miles away. At this place I was taken before a Boer court, tried by nine officers, who after an hour of questions decided that they could not find any charge against me and appeared very sorry that I had been taken prisoner. They decided, however, to send me back to the Transvaal camp, where the general should decide what should be done with me. I was sent back the same day, a distance of 40 miles. Not finding the general there, we continued to another camp at Riverton, 17 miles from Kimberley. It was the largest camp I had seen, numbering about 4,000 men and about 600 wagons. The general being absent, I had to await orders and lived a few days more on coffee and fat cake. At last orders came to take me to the siege camp, ten miles from Kimberley, where I was tried again by court martial on the charge of being a spy. Twelve Boer officers composed the court, and they simply worried the life out of me asking the most foolish questions you can imagine. I was weak from want of food and sleep, and if I had not thought that I was fighting for my life I would have given in.

"The court found me not guilty of being a spy; but, as I knew too much concerning the cannons and number of men surrounding Kimberley, they decided that the best place for me until the war was over would be at the Bloemfontein prison. I asked them if they respected an American passport, but they told me the United States was helping England, and consequently it was of no use. I swore at them and told them they would have to take the consequences, but they only laughed. The following day I was taken to one of the advance works, and I was there only a few minutes when shells began bursting around us. The troops from Kimberley were shelling the fort. The wounded were lying around us, one poor chap having both legs blown off. It was a terrible sight, but gradually I became used to it, and, instead of keeping my head under cover, I watched the puffs of smoke from the British guns. I must have remained watching for a few minutes when suddenly turning around to see how the Dutch were getting along—alas for Boer bravery—they had all fled, leaving their dead and wounded behind them and myself unprotected! Now was my chance to escape, but without a horse it seemed impossible, as the Boers would surely have shot at me from the hills. After sundown they returned and took me back to camp.

"Next morning I was awakened by the sound of heavy guns, which continued all day. On the following morning I started on my way to Bloemfontein, guarded by two Boers. They gave me a very fine horse; also my own saddle and bridle. We had been riding for an hour or so when we stopped to water our horses and give them a rest at a small pub surrounded by trees. Somehow or other I happened to let my horse stray, and when we were ready to start I asked one of the Boers to go and look for him, but he told me to get it myself. As soon as I came close to the horse I picked up a stone and hit him with it, chasing him about 700 yards until I was in the open and could see Kimberley, seven miles away, across the veldt. I then jumped on the horse and, putting spurs to him, started away.

"The first thing I heard was something whistling by my head and then two reports. Turning around, I got sight of my guards coming after me as hard as they could, and every now and then I heard a report. I was only about four miles from Kimberley when I saw a party of Dutch trying to head me off about three-quarters of a mile away. Turning my horse in another direction, I kept clear of them and was just thinking I was safe when my horse stepped into a hole, and off I went. Jumping up, I saw the horse running as hard as he could, 50 yards away and in another direction, with the Boers following him.

"How it happened I don't know, but the horse stopped and waited until I caught him. Mounting, I dug my spurs into the poor animal. Nearer and nearer I came to Kimberley until again I was stopped, this time by a wire fence. I rode along until I came to a gate. I found the gate locked, with a chain twisted around it. I could see the Boers about 300 yards away watching me. Not having anything to cut wire or break the gate, I finally succeeded, after a hard struggle, in lifting it off its hinges. Jumping on the horse, I took one last look at the Boers and cleared. About 2,000 yards beyond the gate I was met by a company of troops who had been sent out to meet me. This must have been the reason the Boers did not follow me up to the gate. Arriving in Kimberley, I was taken to the commanding officer's house and treated with the utmost kindness by the British officers. I subsequently called on the American consul, and, after taking my statements in regard to what the Boers had taken from me, he gave me a check for £25 and sent me to a hotel, directing me to remain quiet and not take up arms."

Young Musits gives a detailed account of the conditions in the besieged city until its final relief. "A short time before this happy event occurred," he writes, "food was becoming very scarce, especially beef, and, as horseflesh is about the only thing obtainable, we shut our eyes and eat it and remain content. The first two or three times I tried horse meat I could hardly keep it quiet. It wanted to get up and run away, but now I enjoy it. I suppose it is because I have to or go without."

FILIPINO BAMBOO CANNON.

Loaded With Stones and Horseshoes They Do Deadly Work.

W. W. Shumate, pay yeoman, acting as assistant paymaster on the United States steamship Marietta, has written his father, at Columbia, S. C., an interesting account of experiences in the Philippines, says the New York Tribune. A description of the bamboo cannon used by some of the "Gouges," as the Filipinos are called, is given in the story of an attack made by the Marietta on the town of Taal, on the south side of Luzon. Horseshoes are generally considered as giving good luck, but they are not sought after when coming from the mouth of a cannon.

After shelling the town, Shumate says, assisting in an attack by the infantry, a party landed from the Marietta to take provisions to the soldier boys. They received a volley from the retreating Filipinos. The infantry suffered six casualties, two men being killed and four wounded. One of the men had the bones of his leg shattered and a terrible wound inflicted by a horseshoe fired from a bamboo cannon. They found several of these guns mounted in the works, and one still loaded with stones and horseshoes. The barrels of the guns had been strengthened by jackets from larger bamboos fitted on and then bands of iron.

New Homing Pigeon Record.

A new world's record for homing pigeon flying has been created by Mackey in the 600 mile race of the Independent District of the National Association of American Homing Pigeon Fanciers, which was from Greenville, S. C., to Newark, N. J. The bird, which is owned by Charles Rothacker of the latter city, arrived at its loft on the same day it was liberated, having attained an average speed of 1,411.91 yards per minute, says the New York World. Of the 35 birds entered four others also "homed" later on the same day. The work of these leading birds is all the more remarkable because they were kept in shipping baskets fully a week before being liberated owing to the weather. The weather, however, was all that could be desired during the race, a light southwest wind and a clear sky prevailing throughout.

Sandwood In Hawaii.

Professor Henshaw of Hilo has discovered a new growth of sandwood trees, averaging ten feet in height, in the Oka forests, says the Hawaiian Star. It was supposed that this tree was extinct in the islands.

Two Widows and a Salted Mine.

A good story is told about how two prospectors had salted a mine in the Galeana district in order to rob a couple of rich widows, which resulted in the aforesaid widows becoming much wealthier.

The prospectors had spent their last cent in digging a hole in the ground to the extent of 80 feet without striking anything but yellow clay. But one of them knew of two rich widows who were just spoiling to have their money sunk in a mine. Accordingly they spent two nights in salting their mine. They hadn't sufficient money to buy some paying dirt, but they stole this from a neighboring mine and hauled a lot of it over to dump into their mine. When several tons of this "paying dirt" had accumulated in the bottom of their mine, the widows were sent for, and while one was talking about the increasing value of the district the other was dumping out all kinds of lead and zinc ore before their astonished eyes.

The widows bought a half interest in that hole in the ground for $1,500. The next day there was no more ore in the shaft, and the fellows declared they would dig no longer. Then the widows bought the other half interest at a total cost of $2,000, and the men biked out for Missouri, laughing in their sleeves. But the women, blindly believing that there must be more ore, continued with the digging and at a depth of ten additional feet struck the richest vein of the whole belt, realizing $75,000 in less than one year's time.—Kansas City Journal.

Duties of a Missionary In Africa.

He is a teacher, but he must also be a builder, for houses, cattle pens, stores and outhouses have to be constructed by the missionary. He must also be a doctor of medicine and a dentist. He must dose the sick natives, who will trust him implicitly to cure them of even leprosy, and he must be able to draw the most solidly rooted molar that ever grew in the skull of a black man. More than this, he must be his own cobbler, and when his boots wear out he must be able to resole them with good understandings and must be content sometimes with nothing but a few French nails and a piece of cowhide with which to accomplish it. His own socks he must darn and keep his temper while he does it. He must be his own carpenter and house decorator as well as furniture maker.

But he must also be his own lawyer, accountant and bookkeeper, and when the currency takes the form of cowrie shells, as it does in Uganda, where 300 tiny cowries make a shilling, it is not easy to keep the accounts right. He must marry and divorce, give judgments and baptize. He must be gardener, cook and dairy maid, grow his own food and look after his live stock. In addition to all this he is the parish minister to help and comfort all who come to him.—From "In Dwarf Land and Cannibal Country," A. B. Lloyd.

Saw Better Days.

Trade with Asia and Oceania.

For the first time in history our exports to Asia and Oceania will exceed $100,000,000 during the current fiscal year. In no part of the world has our trade grown with such amazing rapidity, except in South Africa, the total having increased 100 per cent in two years, for in 1893 our total exports to all Asia and Oceania amounted only to a little more than $27,000,000. The increase is chiefly in cottons, breadstuffs, provisions and manufactured goods.

The tropical portion of Mexico is the point to which men of brains and money are now directing their capital and ability. Anyone by a small monthly payment of $2.50 or more can secure an annual life income and something to leave as a legacy to those dependent upon them for support.

The Isthmus Plantation Association of Mexico have their proposition before the public, and no better offer was ever made to those who wish to invest their savings where it is properly secured. To secure the investors beyond any doubt, the officers of the association have placed all in the hands of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, who is trustee for the investor; no chance for any loss. An investment with this company is as safe as government bonds, and pays much larger dividends. Those who have not already sent their name and address to this association's headquarters for a sample of contract and a prospectus giving full and detailed particulars should do so at once, and if you intend to visit the Carnival, Exposition or State Fair, call at our office and examine the samples of Mexican products which will be of interest to you.

Janesville's splendid school system has brought credit to the town—more credit than any other department—yet it is the first to feel the cut of the pruning shears. Why the council should think it necessary to save $1000 a year at the expense of the school children, after refusing to save five times that amount on lights, is not clear. 'Twas always thus, however.

La Crosse Chronicle—A little "kicking" don't do any harm, if a fellow gets off the swearing train onto the republican platform, but it does not do to take politics too seriously. A fellow who cannot stand it to lose once in a while ought not to play in the game.

The council reduced the school board's allowance by $1,000 this year. Probably this saving will help to pay for some of the illegal street work, etc., but from any other standpoint, the cutting of the school fund will be regarded as a mistake.

The Mineral Point Tribune, speculating as to the name of Senator Spooner's successor, says:
Several are supposed to be ambitious for the honor, among them Congressman Babcock, W. D. Hoard, Isaac Stephenson, S. A. Cook, R. M. La Follette and Congressman Cooper.

The American athletes are showing the Frenchmen how to do it these days, and even the gymnastic training received during the Dreyfus case does not enable the "furriners" to equal the feats of Uncle Sam's representatives.

Beloit Free Press—There is an occasional republican editor up in the woods in this state who will go into hiding just before the fool killer makes his stated visit to the northern section of the state.

The announcement is made that Carter Harrison and ex-Gov. Altgeld have buried the hatchet, but both are watching the grave for fear the other will dig it up again unbeknown.

General Earl M. Rogers, has also pulled out of the gubernatorial race, and the strife will now be between Messrs. La Follette and Stebbins.

The Milwaukee Journal appears to think that a political cyclone is brewing, and that considerable damage will result.

Senator Gear of Iowa, whose death occurred Saturday was a good man, and his place will not readily be filled.

The Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman's democracy does not cause him to persevere very much these hot days.

Trying to Force a Crisis.
"It is possible that certain of the powers want to force upon China at any cost such a crisis as must follow the horrible condition which the news brings today. The edict I presented announcing the safety of the legations was written June 29. Here it is the 13th of July. Who can tell what has happened in that time? I feel sure that the foreigners were safe June 29, but fear for the worst since that time. "The whole world will be to blame if it does not come to the rescue of the Chinese government to save to foreigners. I feel sure that the Chinese government is doing all in its power to save the foreign representatives. It may be powerless to do so if the delay is too long. It may even be too late now."

May Get His Passports.

The insinuation of the Chinese minister that the massacre at Pekin was permitted to facilitate the partition of China is resented in official and diplomatic circles, where regret is expressed that Mr. Wu permitted himself to utter such charges. It is probable that the assertions will be taken up by the state department and Mr. Wu's passports may be the result. While the Chinese minister was making a determined effort to forward to Minister Conger a cipher dispatch handed him by Secretary Hay, news was received here today which indicates that the Chinese are entering upon the final stages of preparing the world for the worst.

Gas Experiments a Success.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 16.—Experiments in producing gas by a new process for the manufacture of glass, which have been in progress at a factory in this city, have proved a success. The cost of producing gas by the new process is claimed to be less than half the cost of natural gas, and even cheaper than natural gas in the boom days of the Indiana gas belt.

MATINEE RACES ON FAIR GROUND TRACK

SPEED CONTESTS TO BE REVIVED IN JANESVILLE.

Bower City Has Quite a Number of Evenly Classed Race Horses That Would Furnish Good Sport in Races—Neighboring Towns Would Be Invited to Participate.

We understand an effort is being made to revive local interest in speed contests by giving a series of cup or matinee races over the track at Bostwick Park—Fair Grounds.

While Janesville is not very well supplied with high class speed, we have quite a number of evenly matched road horses that would furnish good sport in a speed contest.

Our neighbors, Edgerton, Beloit and Clinton, have many excellent high classed trotters and pacers with records from 2:14 to 2:30. Should it be their pleasure to join our local horses a series of afternoon races can be arranged that will furnish most enjoyable entertainment.

No gateage will be charged. A small charge will be made, however, for the grand stand to secure money for keeping the track in repair.

This is the opening day at Detroit of the grand circuit series of harness racing events, extending over two months and embracing all important racing cities, east, west and south, terminating at Lexington, Ky., in September. The most important event today and the most important of any having taken place this year is the Chamber of Commerce stake for 2:24 pacers for $15,000. No doubt the winner will beat 2:08, if conditions are favorable. Tuesday will be trotted the Merchants and Manufacturers' stake for $10,000. This is the most important for many reasons, trotting event of the year and is now recognized one of the classic events of the trotting turf.

The comparatively green pacer in Johnny Kelly's stable, Sydney Pointer, recently paced at Detroit a mile in 2:04, his horse Saraby, with a record of 2:12 trotted a mile in 2:10.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

All-Day Exercises of Rock County Sunday Schools at Janesville Grange Hall Yesterday.

Notwithstanding that the mercury was floating around the nineties, the mission school of Janesville, Mrs. P. F. McGee superintendent, Indiana Ford, Mrs. Levi Hubbard superintendent, and Newville C. A. Whitney, superintendent, gathered in Grange hall, three miles north of the city yesterday, for an all-day rally. The attendance was large. The morning service was largely for the children. Mrs. McGee giving a beautiful lesson of fidelity, as shown between David and Jonathan; Mrs. Hubbard presented a paper on the results to be expected of faithful work; Miss Shoemaker gave a fine recitation, after which Arthur C. Whitney took up the union-lesson of the day. Mr. Whitney is a graduate of our state institution that has done and is doing splendid educational work of which Janesville may well feel proud.

At noon the audience was invited to the dining hall below. Whatever had been lacking in supplying mental pabulum, was counterbalanced by tables loaded with all that the season afforded in furnishing a good dinner.

At two o'clock the meeting was called to order. Mr. J. H. Nicholson was first introduced, his theme being "Opportunity." A great subject ably handled. Rev. J. T. Henderson's address on "Bible Study, its Necessity, Value and Satisfaction" was just what was wanted. Mr. L. K. Criss gave a clear illustration of the conquering power of love. Mrs. Dr. Hedges emphasized the importance of Bible instruction. Dr. Hedges was in hearty sympathy with mission schools.

There was inspiration in the hearty singing which was sandwiched in between the talks.

Joseph Garske Kicked by a Horse on the Nose—The Animal Was Not Shod.

Joseph Garske, a young man about twenty years of age, residing with his parents on the E. P. Wixom farm, had a narrow escape this morning. While walking through the barn in the rear of the horses, one of them suddenly kicked at him, striking him on the nose and knocking him down. The injured man was brought to this city and taken to the office of Dr. E. C. Loomis, who found upon examination that the young man's nose was broken and the flesh cut for about two inches. Dr. Loomis set the broken member and took six stitches to close up the cut. The young man will have a sore face for some days. It was a fortunate circumstance for him that the horse was not shod and that he was no closer, or the injury might have been much worse.

SOLDIERS TO MARCH AS IF IN THE FIELD

NEW EXPERIENCE PLANNED FOR NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

Janesville and Beloit Men to Have Their First Taste of Camp Life, Although Many of the Men Have Been There Before—The Camp Plans.

Janesville militia men will have a new experience when they go to the annual encampment at Camp Douglas this year. Each regiment is to be given a twenty-four hours practice march, under the same conditions as if they were in the field. Each regiment will be in camp for a week. On Thursday morning the regiment will start on a march, each man carrying his gun, knapsack, ammunition, cup and cooking outfit, one day's rations, and in addition one half of a shelter tent large enough for two men. The state now has only one enough of these shelter tents for one battalion, but Adj. Gen. Boardman has sent a request to Washington for 800 more, so that there will be enough for all the men in camp to take the field together. The troops are to spend one night in the field, returning to camp Friday morning. The aim is to put the troops in the same condition as if they were regularly in the field.

Big Attendance Expected

Prospects are that the percentage of attendance at camp will be fully equal to if not larger than last year. Two new companies in the First regiment, from Janesville and Beloit, will get their first taste of military camp life. The First regiment and cavalry troop A, Milwaukee, will go into camp August 4 and remain one week. The Second regiment and Battery A, Milwaukee, will follow, August 11 to 18, while the Third regiment and Tenth separate battalion will be last in camp, August 18 to 25.

Camp Is Improved

The boys will find several improvements in the camp this year. A sewerage system is being put in, but will be only partially completed in time for camp. A new engine house, with officers' baths, has been erected. The stables have been moved from the hollow to a point northwest of the quartermaster's depot. The old cook shanties have been taken down and all the cooking will be done in the "Buzacott" kitchens, which were in use last year. Each company will be provided with a refrigerator, for use in camp, large enough to hold one day's rations for a company. These were specially built at Eau Claire, at a cost of $11 each.

Lieutenant E. M. Caldwell of the Seventh cavalry, U. S. A., who has been detailed to inspect the Wisconsin militia, is now engaged in the work, and expects to have the inspections completed before the troops go into camp.

GOLFERS WILL HAVE A DUFFERS MATCH

R. J. HART FURNISHES MEDAL FOR THE CONTEST

It is for Players That Have Not Beaten the Score of 50 for the Nine Holes—Ladies' Match for Carpenter Medal Will Come Off Tomorrow Afternoon.

Dr. R. J. Hart, has given to the Wisconsin Golf club a handsome gold medal, which will be contested for on the club links in the near future. The committee on games and handicaps have in mind what is known as a duffers' match, which will be a match for players that have not beaten fifty.

This will be an interesting match and one that will create considerable enthusiasm among the "B" class of players, the stronger players of the club being barred out and handicaps will be arranged to suit the "B" class players. It is understood that the Hart medal will become the property of the one winning it at this contest and will not be a club fixture to be played for every year. The man winning the medal will have something to show for his skill as a golfer.

The ladies' match of twelve holes, for the trophy given by Miss Belle Carpenter of Chicago, will be played for tomorrow afternoon. The following ladies have already entered for the competition: Jennie Baker, Agnes Shumway, Helen Fifield, Katherine Fifield, Belle MacLean, May Valentine, Mrs. W. A. Jackson, Mrs. O. L. Fifield, Mrs. I. F. Wortendyke, and Mrs. Shelley and Mrs. Underhill of Edgerton. The match is open to all lady members of the club.

There will also be played tomorrow afternoon what is known as an "Unique" match. The play will start at number one teeing ground, thence to the club house, into the club house, down the stairs to the basement, through the basement out the basement door and down to the new number six green. Then back from number six to the present number nine. The person winning this match will have reason to feel proud of the trophy, as he will encounter more hazards in the one round than he would in a week's play over the regular course. The trophy for this match will be a loving cup donated by one of the members.

Twelve ladies of the club have handed in scores and qualified for the Valentine trophy and the first day's match will be played in two weeks.

After Many Years. After lying in the dead letter office for thirty-seven years, a letter has been returned to a Smith Center, Kan., man with the memoranda that his brother cannot be found at the address given.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

BIG FIRE IN WESTERN CITY.

Business Section of Prescott, Ariz. Destroyed.

FIVE BLOCKS ARE LEVELED.

Many of the Leading Mercantile Houses, Banks, Newspapers and Hotels Burned—The Loss About $1,000,000—Dynamite Used to Check Fire.

Prescott, Ariz., July 16.—The greatest disaster in the history of Arizona occurred early Sunday morning, when the entire business district of this city was burned out, entailing a loss of over $1,000,000, while a disabled water-works system, laid up for temporary repairs, was worthless in fighting the flames. Four and one-half blocks of fine buildings were full in the path of the blaze, and not a portion of one was left standing. Dynamite was freely used in an effort to put a stop to the fire, but to no avail, and great explosions only gave more spread to conflagration and destroyed a number of structures which would have escaped the heat. The town was dry as a tinder from a drought of two months, and when fire started about midnight it spread like a flash and only stopped when it could burn no farther.

Starts From an Overturned Candle.

The fire originated in Burchard's store, in South Montezuma street, from an overturned candle, and spread at once to the big Scoopel building adjoining. From there it hurried through a block of squalid huts back to Granite street, where it swept north and then east to a long row of gambling dens and saloons. This row went up in a few moments, and then the blaze hurried over again to Gurley street and kept south till it found no more fuel. Further up the flames had climbed across Montezuma street and attacked the principal buildings of the city. The progress up the hill toward East Prescott was rapid, and a thrill of dismay went through the great crowd of onlookers as it became apparent that Office row, the Santa Fe yards and ten blocks of residences were doubtless doomed. But here the flames were given an unexpected check. From the top of the Bellevue hotel two boys drenched with water the adjoining roofs and building fronts, and although scorched and blistered they fought the flames until there was no more danger, and half the residence portion was saved.

List of Heaviest Losers.

Following are the heaviest losers: Bashford, Burmister company, $250,000; Sam Hall, $75,000; Hotel Burke, $80,000; D. Levy & Co., $40,000; Jake Marks, $25,000; R. H. Burmister & Sons Co., $20,000; C. A. Drake, $20,000; Ed Block, $25,000; J. W. Wilson, $20,000; Kelly & Stephens, $10,000; Journal-Miner, $12,000; Bank of Arizona, $10,000; Prescott national bank, $10,000; Prescott house, $8,000; W. H. Smith, $10,000; The Courier, $8,000; Golden Eagle hotel, $8,000; Scoopel block, $15,000; F. G. Becht, $10,000; Windsor hotel, $10,000; Mountain City drug store, $6,000; Brinkmeyer hotel, $8,000; Cabinet saloon, $10,000; Palace saloon, $10,000; Prescott Electric Light company, $5,000.

Fourteen Saloons Burned Out.

In addition to the above there were fourteen saloons with losses ranging from $1,000 to $3,000. Five restaurants, five barber shops, two meat markets and sixty residences were destroyed. In many cases the losses mentioned do not include buildings. At daylight teams were at work hauling lumber to the public plaza for the erection of temporary buildings, and many of the burned-out firms will be ready for business in twenty-four hours.

Ex-Senator Clark Sends $1,000.

Ex-Senator W. A. Clark of the United Verde Copper company, who was visiting the works at Jerome, wired $1,000 for a relief fund. All the sufferers from the fire are provided with food, shelter and clothing, and it is not thought any outside assistance will be required. The only business houses remaining in the town are three dry-goods stores, three grocery stores, and two drug stores. The express and postoffice were both out of the fire limits, but the latter had a close call.

Train Kills an Old Miner.

Brazil, Ind., July 16.—William Lawson, aged 58 years who was among the first coal miners to locate in this country was killed by a Vandalia passenger train. He was walking on the track when the accident occurred. His body was thrown fifteen feet from the track. He leaves a wife and family.

Drowned While Swimming.

Kewanee, Ill., July 16.—Jean Brookert, while trying to emulate his companions in feats of swimming, was drowned. He was a well-known young man.

Boys Bound by Safe Robbers.

Akron, O., July 16.—Four masked robbers blew open the safe of Charles Y. Bussy's private bank at Hudson securing $400. They bound and gagged two boys who were sleeping in the room, while the night watchman was held up at the muzzle of a revolver.

MISS GOULD BEFRIENDS A BOY.

Determines to Give a Michigan Youth a Chance to See the World.

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—A story comes from Calumet that is romantic and characteristic of Miss Helen Gould, the famous New York woman. On her western trip recently she passed through the copper country incognito. This is proved by the fact that Harry S. Jackson, the 16-year-old son of Captain Simeon Jackson of the Phoenix mine, left for New York Friday, with money sent to him by Miss Gould. While inspecting the Phoenix mine, in Ontonagon county, with a party, Miss Gould was impressed with the lad, who refused a tip for holding her horses. She questioned him closely and then asked him if he would not like to go to New York and take a position and, possibly, go abroad. He said he would think it over and later wrote accepting her offer. A check came for $50, with instructions to come as soon as possible. He came to Calumet Friday, where he purchased a ticket over the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad for New York, via Mackinac.

Panic in Paris Hurts Many.

Paris, July 16.—At the conclusion of the fireworks display at the Place de la Concorde Saturday in honor of the national holiday, the crowds tried to disperse along the neighboring thoroughfares, but found it impossible to move and they were packed like herrings in a barrel. Men, women and children began pushing, and a panic occurred. Women fainted by scores, and many children were trodden under foot. At least 100 women were carried to the cafes in the neighborhood. It is impossible to tell how many were injured. No deaths have been reported as yet, although it is a marvel that none has occurred, as fifty died on a similar occasion in the exposition in 1887, and at the time of the marriage of Louis XIV. with Marie Antoinette 200 were killed.

Three Die of Diphtheria.

Rockford, Ill., July 16.—Martha Zook, 16 years old, is dead from diphtheria at the Mount Carmel home and orphanage at Franklin Corners, Whiteside county. The victim was buried toward night, with no service except a prayer. She was a daughter of the Rev. Noah Zook, a brother of the founder of the home. This makes three deaths, and at least six others are down with the disease in the Zook institution. The first to die was the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Zook, the second was the Chicago child and the third Martha Zook. The supervisor, Charles Demmon, has had a physician visit the place.

Tornado Wrecks Texas Town.

Austin, Tex., July 16.—News has been received here over the Austin & Northwestern railroad wires to the effect that a cyclone struck Llano, Tex., a town of about 2,000 inhabitants. The freight depot was demolished and several houses unroofed. The Algonia house was wrecked and the stone residence of N. J. Badue unroofed and all the windows blown out. The residence of Dr. Ingalls was wrecked. Many persons received injuries. Among the most seriously hurt are Mrs. N. J. Badue and Mrs. Finkla. Full particulars cannot be obtained, as all communication is now cut off.

Americans Condemned to Die.

New York, July 16.—A report was circulated here to the effect that Lieutenant Tossel and S. Gillingham, members of the Chicago Irish-American ambulance corps, who went to the Transvaal last February in the interest of the boers, had been condemned to death by a British court-martial at Pretoria for attempting to blow up the headquarters in the Morton house of the New York committee to aid the south African republics. It was said that neither of these men was a member of the ambulance corps.

Find Capt. M. A. Healy Insane.

Port Townsend, Wash., July 16.—Upon the complaint of Dr. Gardner, in charge of the United States Marine hospital, Capt. M. A. Healy of the United States revenue cutter McCulloch was examined by the county board of physicians, who pronounced him insane, and a commitment to an asylum was issued. It is understood he will be sent to Washington to the national asylum.

Fund for a Brave Fireman.

San Francisco, July 16.—The fund raised for the benefit of the family of Fireman Sweeney, who was burned to death while saving an old man's life a few weeks ago, has been closed. It amounts to $18,405 and will be invested in government bonds, to be held in trust for the widow and children.

Earthquake Does Much Harm.

Sensational Requirement.

It is stated that one of the qualifications necessary for admission to the Home for Sick and Indigent Actors will be that the applicant never lied about his or her salary.—New York Evening Sun.

Red Cross Founder Poor.

Dr. Henri Dunant, who did so much to humanize war, is living almost penniless in the hospice of Helden in Appenzell, Switzerland. He was instrumental in founding the Red Cross society by a literary work called "Un Souvenir de Solferino," in which he described vividly the sufferings of the wounded and aroused the conscience of Europe. The Geneva convention of 1864 resulted, and the neutrality of hospital and ambulance service was established.

Chums.

The young couple always together before marriage rarely keep up this happy intimacy as man and wife. They are not tired of each other, but the young wife finds herself weak and languid, with no inclination for exercise. And thus begins a division of pursuits and interests which often ends in divided lives. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong. It stops the drains which undermine the strength, cures "female weakness," nourishes the nerves and gives vigor to the whole body. There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription."

"I suffered from female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors, but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Danville, Boyle Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients. I have taken six bottles, and I feel like another person."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free, on receipt of stamps, to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HEALTHY OLD AGE SSS

S. S. S.

The majority of persons upon reaching middle age and past find their blood becomes weak and thin, and diseases that were easily controlled in earlier life begin to affect the constitution. Those predisposed to Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Gout and other hereditary troubles may escape till then, but as they age the blood, so long tainted and weakened by accumulated waste matters, is no longer able to properly nourish the body, and it becomes an easy mark for disease. At this critical period of life the blood must be re-enforced before it can perform its legitimate functions and rid the system of these poisons, and nothing so surely and effectually does this as S. S. S.

S. S. S. strengthens and enriches the blood, improves the appetite, and builds up the general constitution. It is not only the best blood purifier, but the best tonic for old people. It warms the blood, tones up the nerves, removes all taint from the blood, and prevents the development of disease.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood medicine known. Not one particle of mercury, potash or other mineral poison can be found in it, and it may be taken for any length of time without harm.

S. S. S. is the only remedy that reaches deep-seated blood troubles like Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema, Tetters, etc. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, normal condition, and makes it impossible for any poisonous waste materials to accumulate.

If you have an old running sore or an obstinate ulcer that refuses to heal, or are troubled with boils and carbuncles, try S. S. S. It never fails to make a quick and permanent cure of these pests. If your system is run down and you feel the need of a tonic, S. S. S. will strengthen and help you as it has many others to a happy, healthy old age.

S. S. S. cured Mr. H. Borden of Staunton, Va., of a case of Rheumatism of thirty-five years' standing, after the best physicians in the surrounding country had failed. This was seven years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.

Mrs. D. R. Johnson, of Blackshear, Ga., was for years afflicted with a severe type of rheumatism, and had used every remedy known and recommended as a cure without receiving any benefit. S. S. S. promptly reached the seat of the disease and made a complete and permanent cure.

If you are in doubt about your disease, and will send us a statement of your case, our physician will give you any information or advice wanted, for which we make no charge.
